Refund and Cancellation Policy

Withdrawn from a class prior to the first class meeting and receive a refund minus a $25.00 service charge for each class withdrawn. If you withdraw on the day of the first class meeting or any day after that time you will no longer be eligible for a refund.

This policy applies regardless of whether you have attended the class or not. If you withdraw during the first week of the class session you will be eligible for a one time, full class credit toward the session immediately following the session you have withdrawn from.

If you do not use your credit during the session immediately after the one you have withdrawn from your credit will no longer be valid. ArtSouth reserves the right to cancel classes with insufficient enrollment. A full refund will be issued for classes cancelled by ArtSouth. You may also choose to take credit for the following session instead of the refund. ArtSouth also reserves the right to postpone classes due to circumstances beyond our control-such as severe weather, staff illness or emergencies. The instructor will provide make-up classes for any class missed due to unforeseen circumstances. ArtSouth education staff members are not obligated to provide make-up classes for individuals who have missed class for personal, professional or any other reasons not the fault of ArtSouth. Refund and cancellation policies are strictly enforced. ArtSouth is a non-profit agency. Class payments and other contributions ensure the continuation of Art South's arts education and community outreach programs. We thank you for your support of ArtSouth.

I have read and agree with the withdrawal and refund policy.
